

AMO Plans and STAR Center offices- Hurricane Irma UPDATE- September 12, 2017

The AMO Plans office and Star Center will re-open tomorrow, Wednesday, September 13th with limited resources as the campus remains under generator power due to the aftermath of Hurricane Irma. The AMO Plans and Star Center websites are currently back online and email service to AMO Plans and Star Center addresses are now available. However any emails sent to either the amoplans.com or star-center.com domains between Sunday September 10th and this morning at 10:30 AM have not been delivered and should be resent. The AMO website and amo-union.org domain remains unavailable.

The campus remains closed to students until further notice.

For more information regarding the Plan office and Star Center status, please call the Hurricane hotline at 954-920-3222 Ext. 206 or updated information can be found at www.amoplans.com
